

Business Services

CCIVS can offer personalised training services to meet your companies needs in the field of intercultural education and strategic planning.

Intercultural Education provides your employees with key skills in communication, understanding and team building. Benefiting the company and the employees alike it helps to solidify working teams and increase productivity.

The Trainers

The CCIVS Pool of Trainers, brings together experts worldwide from the field of Intercultural education.

The Process

A first meeting to define your companies needs (on or offline). Followed by a formal proposal, which will be further developed based on your feedback.

Quotations

Includes pedagogical costs, training materials, handouts and travel costs of the education team. This varies depending on the size of the group and the duration of the training course.
